Flexible Benefit Plan Terms and Conditions

I UNDERSTAND THAT:

- By participating in the Flexible Benefit Plan, my employer will deduct pre-tax from my pay check: $2.50 per month from the first paycheck of each month and my election amount equally divided by the number of pay periods within the plan year.
- I cannot change this election during the Plan Year unless I have a qualifying change in status as described in the Plan document.
- I must make all of my elections carefully and conservatively. The IRS imposes a strict "use-it-or-lose-it" rule, which means money left in a pre-tax account at plan year end is forfeited.
- Expenses paid under the HCSA or DCAP cannot be reimbursed from any other source and that I will not seek reimbursement from any other source.
- Expenses must be incurred during the Plan Year or the Grace Period. The Grace Period is a 2 ½ month period following the end of the Plan Year during which I may continue to incur expenses for the prior plan year. (September 15, 2018)
- All FY18 plan year claims must be submitted by the claim filing deadline, called a run-out period, which ends October 15, 2018. The IRS imposes a strict "use-it-or-lose-it" rule, which means money left in a pre-tax account at the plan year end is forfeited.
- Qualifying expenses are those incurred by me, or by my legal dependents.
- HCSA expenses can be reimbursed up to the plan year election, less prior reimbursements. DCAP expenses can be reimbursed up to the year-to-date deposits, less prior reimbursements.
- The ASIFlex Card can be used only for qualifying health care expenses as defined by IRS guidelines. The IRS requires me to keep documentation of all my card transaction expenses and submit documentation to the administrator upon request. If I do not provide the requested documentation as required, IRS regulations require that the card be temporarily deactivated. Claims submitted will be offset by any outstanding card transaction amount. Misuse of the card may result in permanent revocation and repayment of ineligible expenses.
- If I have not selected to be reimbursed by Direct Deposit, I am accepting to receive reimbursement check by mail to my address on file. I understand that reimbursements will accumulate until a minimum of $25.00 is met. A reimbursement check will not be issued for an amount below $25.00; unless the plan year has ended.
- I understand additional details are outlined in participant handbook available at asiflex.com/gic.
