

Sixth Bargaining Session:

On July 19th the parties reviewed the written version of the July 13th proposal. The Union asked clarifying questions concerning the Universities proposal; including the methodology and reasons for the University's proposal on how to use the $500 FTE monies. The Union requested the next session be two weeks out.

Fifth Bargaining Session:

On July 13th the University verbally presented a concept for a counter proposal on how to use $500 FTE pool monies.

Fourth Bargaining Session:

On June 29th the Union provided a written proposal for the expenditure of the $500 FTE pool monies. The parties reviewed the proposal and the University asked clarifying questions concerning the Union's methodology and/or criteria on how they divided pool monies. The University committed to providing a counter proposal for the next session.
